As a service to practitioners and the general public, the Law Society Northern Territory (the Society) has compiled information on the legal services provided by NT private firms in the form of a legal referral service which is available from the Society or via our website at www.lawsocietynt.asn.au. If your firm would like to be included in the current information that the Society provides to members of the public who are seeking a solicitor who practices in a particular area of law, please complete the form and authorisation below and return to the Society.

Firms should advise the Society in writing if they wish to change their areas of practice.
